Helston, Sept. 23, 1786.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most faithful, dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Council of the Town of Kilmarnock, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to address the Throne with our most sincere Congratulations on the late providential Escape made from the daring Attack upon your Majesty's most Sacred Person.

The Attachment and Affection universally manifested by your Majesty's Subjects are established on the most solid Principles by the Mildness of your Majesty's Government, and are Proofs that the daring and open Attempt could only be made by a Person in a State of Insanity.

May that God, who rules the Universe, preserve your Majesty's Person from such daring Attempts, and that your Reign may be long continued, as a Blessing to your Majesty's Illustrious Family, and the Happiness of all your Majesty's Subjects.

Signed by Appointment of Council,

James Wilson, jun.
Wm. Cumming.
